WHEN YOUR BIRTHDAY DREAM COMES TRUE

I was delighted to accompany Melva Bonham to the Garfield Football Club Grand Final Luncheon in the Club rooms on the day before the AFL Grand Final.

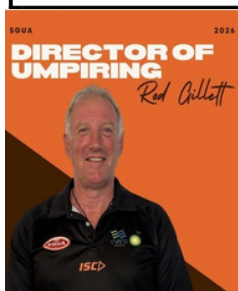

I can assure you the aim of our visit was not to drink our money's worth of alcohol – much more personal than that.

Dane Swan and his 'rat pack' have been Melva's favourites for many years and she was hoping to get the opportunity to speak to him!!

I have to say she practically hijacked the whole afternoon-

Tom Siegert also known as The Suburban Football was brilliant as himself and his alter ego, he kept apologising to Melva for jokes that were a bit crude but as she said, she has spent forty years around footy clubs and has seen and heard it all lol.

It was her 83rd birthday the following day and the room erupted into a rousing rendition of Happy Birthday while Dane Swan also sang to her with his arm around her. I wonder if she got any sleep that night!!!!

CONGRATULATIONS TO WELL-KNOWN LOCAL

Rod Gillett, AKA Rocket, AKA GOAT Junior Umpiring – was selected to represent and play for the Victorian Metro over 60's team at the 2026 Masters National Carnival being held at Newcastle and Lake Macquarie this week.

Masters' teams from all over Australia and for all ages (both male and female) will be converging in New South Wales this week, with over 70 teams expected to participate.

Rod tells us he snagged a major in his first outing for the week. We hope he returns home to Garfield relatively unscathed!

REPRODUCED COURTESY OF THE WARRAGUL GAZETTE – 8TH SEPTEMBER 2026

“100 YEARS AGO – 7TH SEPTEMBER 1926”

“The close of the Central Gippsland Association's competition is now approaching its close, and the first semi-final was played on Saturday at Garfield, the competing teams being Trafalgar and Drouin. The gate takings amounted to 50 pounds, nine shillings and sixpence, which is the lowest on record for a semi-final. The result of the match was that Trafalgar 7 goals 4 behinds defeated Drouin 5 goals 12 behinds. The play was much in favour of Drouin but the work on the forward line was decidedly weak. Crossing the goal line 17 times to 11, they lost by 4 points.”

The amazing coincidence is that 100 years later the Warragul District Junior Football League and the West Gippsland Football and Netball League both held their Grand Finals at Garfield! With a reported 7000 paying patrons for the WGFNL finals considerably more people came to watch the day's games play out in 2026!!!!

CARDINIA SHIRE YOUTH ACHIEVEMENT AWARD s2026

These are annual awards held by the Shire and hosted by the Mayor to recognise and celebrate people aged 18-24, who show resilience, kindness, strength and positive decision making in their everyday life.

The program has been running since 2015 to highlight behind-the-scenes achievements. Examples of these can be returning to school after long periods of non-attendance, applying for jobs, accessing support services during tough times and showing support or kindness to others. Each Ward is encouraged to nominate, the successful nominees are then invited to attend a presentation ceremony, which this year was at the Pakenham Cultural Centre. For each "Achiever" there is a certificate and a small gift. One nominee from each Ward is highlighted for outstanding recognition and receives an EFTPOS gift voucher.

I was fortunate to be invited by Kate Hermon, to share the evening with her wonderful twins Abbey and Bonnie Ashe. Many of you will know the girls and what a massive struggle they have had throughout their relatively short lives. They were born with Treacher-Collins Syndrome, which is a congenital defect affecting the development of facial bones, it can lead to problems with eyesight, hearing, eating and drinking. They have regularly undergone maxilla-facial surgery from the age of 6 months onwards. As their young bodies have outgrown the previous corrective surgeries, more has been required.

These girls were born fighters and have had great support from their mum and their brothers. Schooling at times was brutal but they have persevered, both have gained their RSA's, driver's licences and have part-time duties at Hillview and Gumbuya and regularly help beyond the bar at the Garfield Football Club. They have winning smiles and are always happy to help out. As they have transitioned to adulthood, they are confident with who they are, what they want in life and are striving to realise their dreams.

The Milk Train

By Heather Arnold harnold3814@gmail.com

By 1895 there were 174 milk factories and 284 creameries in Victoria, including a number in the Koo Wee Rup Swamp area. Up until the 1930s the area could sustain several factories for a number of reasons. Firstly, dairy farms were prolific and increasing – in 1929 it was reported that the Shire of Berwick had 5,000 head of dairy cattle on 400 farms and in 1938 there were 15,000 dairy cattle on 700 dairy farms.

Secondly, most farmers were still using horse and cart for transport, so local factories were necessary. Lastly, the factories had slightly different purposes. For instance, whole milk was received at Iona and Cora Lynn, whilst farms with a separator could deposit cream at Drouin, Lang Lang or Bayles.

At Iona, a Creamery run by the Fresh Food and Frozen Storage Company, was opened in 1897 and by 1900 it had 50 suppliers. The Creamery operated until around 1907. In 1906, the Drouin Co-Operative Butter Factory established a factory in Iona on the corner of Little Road and the Main Drain. It closed in October 1928 and was demolished in 1930. Another butter factory, owned by Holdenson and Neilson, operated in Iona from 1912 or 1917 (depending on sources). It closed in 1921. The two companies amalgamated in 1908 to become Holdenson and Nielson Fresh Foods P/L.

The Drouin Co-Operative Butter Factory was established in 1904 and they began the work of establishing a factory at Cora Lynn in 1910, and it opened in November 1911. The factory was remodelled and extended in 1932, partially to compensate for Iona closing down; in that year the factory had around 500 regular suppliers. It was closed in the late 1940s/early 1950s. The building is still standing at Cora Lynn. Drouin Co-Operative Butter Factory took over the Bayles Butter Factory in 1944, which had been established in 1922. It was re-built and enlarged in 1966 and operated until January 1980.

However some local dairy farmers sent their milk, in milk cans, to Melbourne by train to city processors and one of the main complaints that the farmers had with the Victorian Railways was that there was no milk train on a Sunday.

In 1912 petition was circulated to have the Sunday milk train, extended to Bunyip on the Gippsland line. The petition was presented to the Secretary of Railways by local M.L.A, Mr Keast. -

Pakenham Milk Train - A petition has been circulated, and is being largely signed by residents of Bunyip, Iona, Garfield, Tynong, and Nar-Nar-Goon, asking the Railway Commissioners to run the Sunday milk train as far as Bunyip. At present the train stops at Pakenham, and dairymen on this side are unable to send their milk to Melbourne (The Argus Oct 3, 1912)

Mr Keast received a response in January 1913 that the train would not be extended as it would cost £100 per annum and the total number of cans of milk that would be forwarded from stations between Bunyip and Pakenham on a Sunday is only 30.

In May 1914 another attempt was made to have the milk train extended to Bunyip - During the past couple of years the milk producers of Nar nar goon, Iona, Tynong, Garfield and Bunyip have been vainly urging the Railway Department to run the Sunday milk train, which now stops at Pakenham, as far as Bunyip. The city retailers will not take the milk unless the producers can supply it on seven days of the week, and the farmers this side of Pakenham cannot do this at present through no fault of their own (Bunyip Free Press 5th May 1914)

Continued from Page 7 Five years later in 1919 another attempt was made by the Farmers Union, representing farmers from Nar Nar Goon to Longwarry, who joined with farmers from Drouin and Warragul in a 'Greater Gippsland' movement to have the milk train extended from Pakenham to Warragul. Their argument was that as the milk train reached Pakenham at 1.00pm and did not leave until 7.00pm, that the six hours could be used to run the train to Warragul and back. In spite of a deputation meeting with the Railways Commissioners this attempt was also unsuccessful. One of the issues may have been the small number of cans which would be picked up from each station - six cans of milk from Nar Nar Goon, four from Tynong and one from Garfield, however as Cr Pearson from Bunyip said at one of the meetings - if the farmers had the train, the milk would come.

There was a down side of sending milk on the trains as this 1915 report notes - Whatever tourists may suffer at the hands of baggage smashers, it is mild in comparison with the treatment of milk cans consigned on a railway journey. A chronic complaint expressed by dairymen is centred in the rough handling of their milk cans on the Victorian railways...The same treatment as far as the weight of the milk cans may permit, is given to milk, and the wonder is that city buyers do not receive butter churned from the milk by the roughness of the handling. Makers of milk cans have exhausted their ingenuity in trying to design an unbendable receptacle for the carriage of milk in railway trains, but without success. Any day travellers may see on railway stations milk cans in many distorted forms, and these grotesque shapes are due largely, if not solely, to reckless handling by railway porters. (The Leader, March 6, 1915)

We will finish with this article from The Age in 1926 - Replying to a paragraph in "The Age" of Wednesday, 8th September, in which it was stated at Garfield that at certain stations in the Gippsland district cans of milk were being loaded in the vans of passenger and goods trains along with hides, skins, calf carcasses, crates of fowls, &c., the Railway Commissioners said that such action was contrary to regulations. Definite instructions had been issued that milk must not be loaded with such goods as fish, rabbits, meat, hides, &c., and the inquiries that had been made into the complaint under notice failed to disclose any disregard of these instructions. The Commissioners added that if a specific instance were given of milk being transported in such a manner they would have immediate inquiries made. (The Age, September 16, 1926)

Three Hours of Free Power?

Imagine running your washing machine, dishwasher or heating/cooling without paying for the electricity. From 1 October 2026, Victorian households with a smart meter can access the Midday Power Saver, offering free electricity every day from 11am to 2pm.

For households able to shift their energy use to the middle of the day, the savings can add up. The Victorian Government estimates households could save between $149 and $428 a year, depending on how much electricity they move into the free period.

Does this sound too good to be true? It might be. Electricity companies set the tariff on electricity used outside these times which may be more expensive than your current plan which could cost you more overall.

Benefits

- Free electricity from 11am to 2pm daily.
- Potential annual savings on household energy bills.
- Particularly useful for people working from home, families, and households with electric vehicles or home batteries.

Potential Setbacks

- The offer may not suit households that cannot shift electricity use to the middle of the day.
- Electricity rates outside the free period may be higher, so it is important to compare plans before switching.
- Running several high-energy appliances at once could overload household circuits, especially in older homes.
- Before signing up, check your current energy use, compare available offers, and see whether your daily routine can make the most of Victoria's free midday power.

BUNYIP -GARFIELD PROBUS – HELEN PEGGIE

Each year we hold a Footy Day in early September when everyone comes dressed in their team colours and hoping that their team will win the Grand Final. The team colours were displayed around the hall which helped to create a great atmosphere. After the meeting and morning tea we made up tables of six to complete a series of tasks. We had to answer lots of questions relating to Football as well everyone had a turn at Handball as well one person from each table sang their team anthem to get points. At the end the winning table was presented with their award and the last one got the wooden spoon. Then we had a Footy Lunch and the day finished with afternoon tea. A big thank you to those who ran the competition and also anyone that helped on the day.

Fabulous Films we watched (9 to 5) that Dolly Parton starred in alongside Lily Tomlin and Jane Fonda which was a bit of fun.

A group went to the Warragul Art Centre to see Keith Potger who was one of the band members of The Seekers. He not only sang a collection of their songs but gave a bit of the history of their journey to fame. The others in the band were Athol Guy, Bruce Woodley and of course lead singer Judith Durham. Keith helped form the group in 1962 and were the first Australian folk pop and gospel band to become famous in England and America. There was a special moment when they shared rare photos of the group and the late great singer Judith Durham which brought back many memories to everyone. After the show we went to the Golf Club for lunch.

The Walking Group went to Mirboo North to explore some more of the Rail Trail and then had lunch at the Hotel. Every month they go somewhere different, and it has to be planned so we thank the ones responsible for organising the walk.

Probus Clubs across Australia are marking a significant milestone in October celebrating 50 years since the first Club was formed in New South Wales at Hunters Hill in 1976. Then gradually other Clubs were formed across Australia for retirees as well semi- retired people. Over five decades Probus has played a vital role in helping people build social connections while enjoying a range of guest speakers, outings, shared interests and fun. The Clubs in our area will celebrate together at the end of October. Our Club has near 100 members and there is no waiting list, and anyone is welcome to attend any of our meetings. We meet the first Tuesday of the month at 10am in the Garfield Hall. Each month we have a guest speaker after a short meeting and morning tea. If you are interested at all come and see how our Club works.

Conversation Circle

A welcoming space for open, tender conversations about death, dying, caring, grief, and how we look out for one another.

This group is for anyone in the community who is curious, open, or wanting to talk about the things we don't often say out loud — fears, experiences, questions, and hopes. You do not need to be facing illness, loss, or end of life to attend.

- The group is facilitated by Monique from End of Life Ed, a palliative care nurse, and is designed to be supportive and inclusive — not a lecture, counselling session, or therapy group. There is no pressure to share and no particular agenda.
- We gather to listen, speak if we wish, and learn from one another, helping build a tender and compassionate community.
